

MARKET NOTICE

Market Notice: 2026_03

Date: 15/01/2026

Subject: Review of AFMA's Cash Conventions

AFMA Members and market participants are advised that, following a review of AFMA's Cash Conventions by a Cash Committee Working Group, members of AFMA's Cash Committee have voted to adopt the revised Cash Conventions following several amendments to the previous conventions due to the changing trading environment following the introduction of the RBA's new open market operations (OMO) procedures

The revised conventions take effect from 16 January 2025. The Cash Conventions document can be found here.

Please contact Mark McCarthy if you have any questions regarding this notice.

About AFMA

The Australian Financial Markets Association (AFMA) is the leading industry association promoting efficiency, integrity and professionalism in Australia's financial markets and provides leadership in advancing the interests of all market participants. These markets are an integral feature of the economy and perform the vital function of facilitating the efficient use of capital and management of risk. Market participants perform a range of important roles within these markets, including financial intermediation and market making. AFMA represents over 130 members, including Australian and international banks, leading brokers, securities companies, state government treasury corporations, fund managers, traders in electricity and other specialised markets and industry service providers.
