

MARKET NOTICE

Market Notice: 2024_03

Date: 1/01/2024

Subject: New AFMA Gas Conventions

AFMA has published the a new set of Gas Conventions. The conventions are intended to streamline market practices in the Australian gas market and provide the basis for standardised trading in the over-the-counter gas market.

The conventions have been developed by our Gas Committee and reflect current practices in the gas market.

The Gas Committee is responsible for maintaining and updating these conventions.

Please contact Lindsay Gamble Director - Policy if you have any questions regarding this notice.
